

OPTN Meeting Code of Conduct

The OPTN is committed to providing a safe, positive, and welcoming experience for all meeting participants.

The below information applies to all OPTN meeting-related events. By registering and in-person attendance, all participants are expected to abide by this Code of Conduct and agree to:

Before leaving home

- Follow relevant guidance provided by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), World Health Organization (WHO), and your local health authority.
- Adhere to government issued travel restrictions and guidance issued by the region to which you will be traveling and the region from which you are traveling.
- Evaluate your own health and that of people you are in close contact with; contact the meeting/event organizers if you have concerns related to attending.
- Stay home if you feel sick.

On-site during the event

- Assume all inherent risks of attending an in-person event, including the potential risk of possible exposure. Follow guidance from the local health authority for everyday precautions to help prevent the spread of illnesses.
- Stay in your room and contact Meeting Partners at meetings@unos.org if you wake up not feeling well during the event.
- Adhere to social distancing recommendations as applicable.
